Integrated management tools to power your Nonprofit

When Giveffect powers all of your nonprofit day-to-day labor intensive activities, the executive nonprofit team can focus their time on higher level decision making, allowing them to develop stronger outreach programs to power their mission.

Nonprofit Administrative Office: Paperless, online and automated.

Development Directors and Database Managers will no longer need to manually export data from one system and import it into their relationship management database. Giveffect's automated data entry allows your staff members to easily sift through all the data.

"The Giveeffect webinars have helped me discover effective components that will help in our fundraising efforts. Not only is the software user friendly, but, if a question comes up, the staff at Giveeffect quickly provides information. I really appreciate the "Chat with us" feature and the tutorials."
